JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE NEGRO IN MASSACHUSETTS IN THE OLDEN TIME.

One of the most accomplished historical scholars in the country, Mr. J. Wingate Thornton, of Boston, has recently discovered the form of negro marriage prepared and used by the Reverend Samuel Phillips, of Andover, Massachusetts, whose ministry was beginning in 1710 and ending with his death in 1771, was a prolonged and eminently distinguished service of more than half the eighteenth century. His immediate successor was the Reverend Jonathan French (1772—1809) in the family of whose son Mr. Thornton found the document at Northampton, N. H., on the thirty-first of December, 1868. I am indebted to his liberal courtesy for the opportunity to make use of it at the present time.

It is copied exactly from the original now before me, and the italics are as marked by the author himself, whose work could certainly have been none other than the most approved and orthodox pattern. Ex uno disce omnes.

A FORM FOR A NEGRO-MARRIAGE.

You S; do now, in the Presence of God, and these Witnesses, Take R; to be your Wife;

Promising that so far as shall be consistent with ye Relation which you now sustain, as a Servant, you will Perform ye Part of an Husband towards her: And in particular, you Promise, that you will Love her. And that, as you shall have ye Opportty & Ability, you will take a proper Care of her in Sickness and Health, in Prosperity & Adversity.

And that you will be True & Faithful to her, and will Cleave to her only, so long as God, in his Providce, shall continue your and her Abode in Such Place (or Places) as that you can conveniently come together.

——Do You thus Promise?

You R: do now, in ye Presence of God, and these Witnesses, Take S: to be your Husband;

Promising, that so far as your present Relation, as a Servant, shall admit, you will Perform the Part of a Wife, towards him: And in particular,

You Promise, that you will Love him: And that, as you shall have the Opportty & Ability, you will take a proper Care of him in Sickness and Health; in Prosperity and Adversity:

And you will be True & Faithful to him, and will Cleave to him only, so long as God in his Providence shall continue his & your Abode in Place (or Places) as that you can come together. Do You thus Promise?

I then, agreeable to your Request, and with ye Consent of your Masters & Mistresses, do Declare, that you have Licence given you to be conversant and familiar together, as Husband and Wife, so long as God shall continue your Places of Abode as aforesaid; And so long as you Shall behave your Selves as it becometh Servants to doe;

For, you must, both of you, bear in mind, that you Remain Still, as really and truly as ever, your Master's Property, and, therefore, it will be justly expected, both by God and man, that you behave and conduct yourselves as Obedient and faithfull Servants toward your respective Masters & Mistresses for the Time being:

And finally I exhort & Charge you to beware lest you give place to the Devil, so as to take occasion from the Licence now given you, to be lifted up with Pride, and thereby fall under the Displeasure, not of Man only, but of God also; for, it is written that God resisteth the Proud, but he giveth Grace to the humble.

I shall now conclude with Prayer for you, that you may become good Christians and that you may be enabled to conduct as such; and in the partier that you may have Grace to behave suitably towards each Other, as also dutifully towards your Masters & Mistresses, Not with Eye-Service, as Men pleasers, but as ye Servis of Cut doing ye Will of God from ye heart, &c.

[ENDORSED]
NEGRO MARRIAGE.

Thus the mutual pledges of these poor creatures were formally in terms made subordinate to their relations as slaves; their personal fidelity to each other to depend on their respective places of residence for the time being; and their matrimonial privileges, or license to be conversant and familiar together as Husband and Wife, was to continue as long as they lived in the same neighborhood and during good behavior. Both these conditions were of course determined, by the owners.

But such a formula of martial obligation as this needs neither comment nor explanation! It speaks for itself! and furnishes an illustration which epitomizes and emphasizes the whole story of slavery in Massachusetts. How long it would take such a guarantee to the slave of 'the rights of marriage and of family,' to bring 'about a modification of the character of negro slavery,' must be left to the researches of the historian or the imagination of the reader."

DIRECTIONS FOR CUTTING, WHITENING, AND LEARNING TO BRAID STRAW.

Cut rye near the ground when the grain is in the milk; tie it in small bundles, cut off the heads, then dip it in boiling water; (if you cannot dip it, pour boiling water over it, though dipping is best,) dry it in the sun, thoroughly, taking it in at night, so that no dew falls upon it. Cut out that part of the straw that is under the husk, and tie it up small bundles to make fine braid for bonnets. For hats, use the whole length between the joints.

To bleach or whiten straw: Take a barrel with one head out; take the bundles of straw you have cut, wet them with soapsuds, tie them in the barrel as near the head that remains in as you can, dig a hole in the ground, a few inches deep, a little larger than the barrel; put some ashes in the middle of the hole, then heat some iron vessel, and put some coals upon the ashes, and put the hot iron vessel upon the coals. Put into the iron vessel two ounces of sulphur (or brimstone) for every pound of straw. Set the open head of the barrel with the straw in it over the iron vessel, and heap up some dirt around it to make it tight. Let it remain all night, and if it is not as white as you want it, repeat the operation, taking care to wet the straw every time you smoke it, or the smoking will do no good. Old straw, Leghorn, or palm leaf hats or bonnets, may be whitened in this way, if they are thoroughly washed with a brush or sponge and soap-suds, before smoking.

Straw must always be wet, when it is braided to prevent its breaking. An ingenious person can learn to braid or plait straw by taking a piece of old braid, and wet it, and pick it to pieces, and then braid it again. Short pieces of braid may be obtained at the bonnet makers. Every person, who has a family of children, an old pro cure straw and try it. For I have heard of children who earned their clothes, when four years of age, by braiding straw. The fine straw, used in Italy for braiding is procured by sowing rye very thick upon poor land, so that the straw does not grow to half the usual size. Various kinds of grass and the straw of any kind of grain may be used, for braiding, either with or without coring as above described. The tool used for splitting straw is a piece of wood five inches long, with a series of sharp spurs near one end with a wood or metal spring one side of them—which is pressed down upon the straw to keep it spread flat while it is drawn through the spurs and split.

It has been recently stated, in the newspapers, that the farmers' daughters of Massachusetts sold straw hats and bonnets, in the year 1849, to the value of $1,646,596. And during the same year there was straw, palm leaf, willow, &c., imported to the amount of $1,169,941, which shows the annual consumption to be about three millions of dollars.

ELECTION! ELECTION!

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CITY OF RALEIGH, March 8, 1869.

In pursuance of a resolution adopted by the Board of Commissioners, notice is hereby given, that an election will be held on the 6th day of April, 1869, at the Court House, in this City, wherein the qualified voters of the City shall express their approval or disapproval of the question, whether the City of Raleigh shall borrow FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS in the manner, and for the purposes mentioned in the following act of the General Assembly of North Carolina.
WM. H. HARRISON, Mayor.

AN ACT TO ENABLE THE CITY OF RALEIGH TO BORROW MONEY FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact: SECTION 1. That for the purposes of paying present indebtedness of the City of Raleigh, and also for meeting the expenses of improvements to be made for the same, the City is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds severally of such sums or denomination, payable at such time or times respectively, drawing interest at such rate, not exceeding eight per cent. per annum, payable half yearly, of such form and tenor, and transferable in such way as the Board of Commissioners of said City shall deem most judicious, for said bonds as to be issued shall be disposed of upon the best terms practicable. Provided, That said bonds be of the denomination of one hundred, and five hundred, and one thousand dollars, respectively, and in such proportion as may be deemed advisable, and Provided further, That said loan shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars, and the bonds having twenty years to run.

SEC. 2. That the Board of Commissioners of the City of Raleigh are hereby authorized and empowered, and it shall be their duty, to provide for the payment as well of the principal money as also of the accruing interest of the bonds to be issued under the power granted in the preceding section, by annually laying particular taxes for these special purposes on all the persons and subjects of taxation on which said Board of Commissioners now are or hereafter may be authorized to lay taxes, for any purpose whatever, and such taxes shall be collected and specially and exclusively applied to the satisfaction and discharging of the interest, and also of the principal money of such bonds, and so much thereof as may not be annually required to pay such interest and cannot be applied in discharge of the principal money of said bonds, shall be so invested as to secure the payment of such principal money upon maturity of said bonds. For the purpose of securing the due investments of the amount to be collected from year to year and applicable to the payment of the principal money of said bonds, the Board of Commissioners aforesaid shall appoint some suitable person to be styled "Commissioner of the Sinking Fund of the City of Raleigh," whose duty shall be, under such general rules and regulations as said Board of Commissioners shall from time to time prescribe, to make investments of so much of the taxes collected as aforesaid as shall be applicable as aforesaid to the payment of the principal money of said bonds, and to do and perform all such other services in connection with the debt of the City of Raleigh as said Board of Commissioners may prescribe, and such Commissioner shall give bond, and receive such compensation for his services as said Board of Commissioners may determine.

SEC. 3. That none of the bonds authorized to be issued by the first section of this Act shall be disposed of either by sale, exchange or otherwise, for any purpose whatever, other than that declared in said section; nor shall any of said bonds be applied either by sale, exchange or otherwise, in satisfaction, discharge or renewal of any one of the class of debts referred to in said section, until such debt shall have been first duly audited and approved by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Raleigh.

SEC. 4. The provisions of this Act shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of the City of Raleigh, at an election to be held at the Court House in said City, at a day to be designated by the Commissioners thereof, which shall not be less than thirty days after the ratification of this Act. Those approving the provisions of this Act shall deposite in the ballot-box a slip bearing or containing the printed or written word "Approved." Those disapproving the same shall deposit a like ballot with the words "Not Approved." If a majority shall vote "Approved," it shall be deemed and held that a majority of the qualified voters are in favor of giving the Commissioner authority to issue the bonds of the City as mentioned in this Act, and likewise to levy and collect the necessary taxes to pay the interest and principal of said bonds as above mentioned. If a majority of said voters shall vote "Not Approved," then this Act shall be of no effect. Those qualified to vote for Mayor and Commissioners of said City, and none others, shall be allowed to vote, and the election shall be held and returns made under such rules and regulations similar in case of election of civil officers. It shall be the duty of the Mayor to cause a copy of this Act to be posted at the Court House door, and to be published in the Raleigh Standard and Sentinel, daily for twenty days preceding the election, and he shall publish in like manner a notice of the election. Public notice shall be given of the result of the election.

SEC. 5. The Commissioners of the City of Raleigh shall have power, consistently with the laws of the State, to provide for the registration of voters, and to take all measures necessary and proper for holding the election as contemplated in this Act.

SEC. 6. This Act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified this 3d day of March, A. D. 1869.

President of the Senate.
(Signed,) Speaker of the House.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, MARCH 30, 1869.

MODERATION VERSUS VIOLENCE.

The four years that have passed since "the cruel war was over" have developed some phases of human nature that are not readily perceived, or not perceived at all, in the "dulcet piping times of peace." It takes tumult and war to bring out in bold relief the more hidden traits of character. We have heard it said, that selfishness, that despicable principle which renders man insensible to the wants or woes of his fellow-man, was displayed in all of its activity in camp life. That the selfish man seemed to grow more intensely selfish amid the anxieties and privations of the soldier's life. Such results were noted by the discerning eye.

But if war caused one of the basest passions of ignoble souls to burn with intenser and more consuming heat, so peace that follows war serves to evolve another trait peculiar at least to some natures, and causes them to be stamped with the seal of inferiority and baseness. Among the traducers of Southern people and those who, like Wendell Phillips, are for visiting us with fire and faggot, and halter and sword, are not the brave men who stood up against us in face to face fight. But they are men, who like Shakspeare's braggart,

"Spit forth death and mountains, rocks and seas," at a goodly distance from the battle-field, and who,

"Talk as familiarly of roaring lions,
As maids of thirteen do of puppy-dogs," but who were extremely careful to keep their precious carcasses away from scenes of slaughter, when gallant men bleed and die. Like Job's war horse, they "smell the battle afar-off," so far that they are never in any danger. These are the men who curse the South and pour out upon her their direst maledictions. But the brave veterans of the North, the men who followed Sherman and Grant through storms and tempests, are magnanimous as gallant, and are for laying aside the spear and battle-axe for the pruning hook and the plough share; they are for allaying sectional strifes and animosities, and for peace and justice to reign supreme.

We would fain draw hope for the future of our country from this unquestioned fact—that the truest friends to day of our nation's weal, and the surest defenders of our nation's honor, are the heroic men who fought against each other in the late war. These men know what war means. They have drunk deep of suffering and self denial, and they are for burying all feuds and reproaches in one common grave of desolation and death wrought by the red hand of war. Grant is a soldier, and will not prove recreant to a soldier's plighted faith. He has said, "let us have peace," and he is solemnly pledged to heed no insane ravings come from what quarter they may. When Boston Fanaticism cries out that he must send us a besom instead of a blessing—that men must govern the South "whose very names shall mean vengeance—deep, terrible, and most effective vengeance," we would gladly believe that our President will be to their cries as deaf as an adder, and that he will take the Sheridans (as he has done the one known as Phillip,) and send them to places where they cannot work mischief and ruin.

We sincerely hope that the course of Gen. Grant, towards the South, will be eminent for its moderation and manliness; that as far as his own people are concerned, it may be said of him with truth, that if

"In war was never lion raged so fierce,
So
"In peace was never gentle lamb more mild."

THE PROGRESS OF THE CUBAN REVOLUTION.

It is very difficult, amid conflicting rumors and manipulated telegrams, to tell precisely what is the true condition of affairs in the island of Cuba. The accounts may vary according to the interests of those who have the manufacturing of war news for home consumption, and for foreign embarrassment. No doubt the insurgents exaggerate, and it is well understood now that the Spanish authorities greatly magnify or conceal the actual results of battle. It is claimed, by the insurgents, in their address to our President, that the present rebellion is not a mere outbreak "of a few discontents, but the grave and sublime uprising of a people thirsting for liberty." Every Southerner who values liberty and loves truth and honor, will rejoice in the destruction of oppression the world over. And every intelligent Southerner will despise the disgusting harangues of Beecher et id omne genus, who were for coercing us, but who sing psalms and indulge in sentimental rhapsodies to liberty and freedom for the despoiled and oppressed Cuban. We despise sujotery and deceit, and, while we wish the people of Cuba great success in the right, we contemn the bare-faced effrontery and charlatanry of such "sleek-headed men," who were even for letting loose upon us the blood hounds of war, whilst they indulge now in patriotic spoutings, and pass sympathetic resolutions about distant Greece or volcanic Cuba. Late advices from Cuba indicate further success for the belligerents. It is also reported that they have received help, in the way of recruits from the United States. The prospects seem to be fair for the independence of the Island, and for its annexation to the United States, at no very distant day thereafter.

THE FIASCO IN ALAMANCE.

The Wilmington Journal after copying the main points from the Sentinel, in regard to the "new rebellion in Alamance County," makes the following just and pertinent remarks:

The offence for which this county is to be invaded by a band of armed negroes, peaceable citizens threatened with arrest, and greater or less outrages committed, "hath this extent, no more." A brutal negro being chastised for a most fiendish attack upon a respectable young lady is made the pretext of quartering negro militiamen upon the people at great expense and to the detriment of the peace and good order of the county. At a time of great excitement, and, from the very nature of the offence and punishment, calculated to arouse the bitterest feelings of the whites and blacks against each other, for the first time in the history of North Carolina arms are placed in the hands of an ignorant and prejudiced race, under the pretence of preserving the peace, but really to protect a criminal and seek vengeance upon those who had visited him with swift but inadequate punishment. We unhesitatingly pronounce it an outrage against the people of Alamance, and contrary to the best interests of the State.

We are opposed to Lynch law in any shape and under every circumstance. We believe the majesty of the law should always be vindicated. Yet, if people are ever justified in taking the law into their own hands, or are unwilling to await its delays, it is under the circumstances which this case presents. And, instead of sending ignorant and imbittered black-a-moors, burning with vengeance, to punish those justly incensed people, their forbearance should rather have been commended. We are satisfied that in no view of the case was such extreme and dangerous expedients necessary. The civil officers of the county made no demand upon the Governor for military assistance, and their powers had not been set at naught.

A heinous offence had been committed, and the criminal had been severely chastised by an outraged community, an occurrence not unfrequent in the country. But political capital must be made, and the disturbance is magnified into a "new rebellion." The extraordinary powers of the Governor are vindictively exercised, and negro troops are hastened to the scene of action. The good name of North Carolina must be sacrificed, and her peaceful borders must resound with the tramp of soldiers. The fears of emigrants must be aroused, and the attention of prospective settlers called to the warlike condition of the State. For what purpose, for what good end, do all these things portend?

Does Holden really aspire to fill the iniquitous role of Brownlow? Is North Carolina on the same high road to anarchy and blood shed which has marked the history of Tennessee? Does our Governor take courage from a supposed sympathy of the new President? Are our people to be lorded over by negro militiamen? Is this the beginning of the end? Has Governor Holden counted the cost?

Since the article that appeared in the Sentinel was prepared, we have been informed that there were no negroes among the "malish," who were sent to Alamance. We can not vouch for the accuracy of the information.—ED. SENTINEL.

THE DEMOCATIC ELEMENT IN THE CABINET.

We have already expressed ourself relative to the general character of Grant's Cabinet, but we failed to notice particularly the large Democratic element incorporated into the advisory council of the President. We do not suppose that all of the gentlemen who were once members of the Democratic party are specially anxious to be reminded of their former political proclivities, but it is none the less remarkable, that the President, once a Democrat, should have chosen as many as four persons to be members of his political house-hold who once affiliated with the same party.—It is stated that Messrs. Boutwell, Cox and Rawlins were Democrats at one time, and Mr. Creswell was a Douglas Democrat. Mr. Fish, the Premier, was a Whig. What Borie and Hoar were in old days we are not informed. But may not the country anticipate from the "composite material" of this administration something better for all, than a Cabinet composed altogether of men of one of the old political organizations would have justified? If in a multitude of counselors there is wisdom, so in a strange admixture of variant principles and former antagonisms there may be possibly justice.

ASHAMED!

A gentleman just from the seat of war in Alamance informs us that, the magistrates who applied to Governor Holden for troops, pretended to be greatly surprised and mortified when the "veterans" arrived. They soon found that they were losing ground with the people, and were very anxious to have the "malish" sent back.

Badham, who said he would lie behind a log until the moss grew upon his back, if he were the father of the young girl whose outrage was attempted, until he had killed the negro,—Attorney Badham sent word to Dr. Moore, one of the Commoners from Alamance, that he would have the "malish" removed, provided that he, Dr Moore, would give assurance that the Ku Klux's would behave themselves. The Doctor sent word in reply, that he was no leader of the Ku Klux Klan, but, if he were, he would give Badham a pass to go in safety through the lines. Badham would lie behind a log to kill the negro, and yet he wrote a letter to Gov. Holden asking for militia to be sent to Alamance. How is this? Badham "don't tote fair."

We learn from the same source that Alamance county was never more quiet—that "peace reigns in Warsaw" once more. We trust that peace will always reign there, and throughout the State.

We hear it reported that there is to be a railroad excursion, at no distant day, over the whole length of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, for the purpose of bringing together the friends of the road—the Stockholders, and others. We hope it will be extended so as to take in the North Carolina road, and give the people a chance to see the whole line that is to be consolidated. Cannot you go the whole figure, gentlemen, and let us see the whole, consolidated, through line?—Newbern Times.

We learn from good authority that Col. Sam. T. Carrow, of Washington, N. C., will certainly be appointed United Stated Marshal for the District of North Carolina.—Ib.

Legislature of North Carolina.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

MONDAY, March 29, 1869.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Substitute for an act to provide for a system of public instruction.

The question recurred upon the adoption of section 4.

Mr. Welch moved to strike out in the section "five years" and insert "two years."

Mr. Downing moved to amend the amendment by making it "three years."

Mr. Welch accepted the amendment.

The amendment was put to a vote and lost.

Mr. French moved to strike out the words "for a period of not less than five years" and insert "until otherwise provided by the General Assembly." Agreed to.

The section as adopted reads as follows, to-wit: "The text books selected and prescribed by the Board of Education shall remain in use until otherwise provided for by the General Assembly."

Mr. Ingram moved to strike out section 5 which provides that the Board of Education shall purchase, annually, for the use of the schools of the several counties, such quantities of text books as may be needed in the schools thereof; said books to be forwarded to the Commissioners of each county, the cost of which shall be paid by the State Treasurer, on the order of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, who shall furnish, the same time, to the Treasurer, the amounts due from the Commissioners of each county for the books forwarded to such county which sum shall be charged to the county.

Mr. Bowman said it was time for this legislature to cease to levy taxes on the people. He thought the whole bill abounded in abominations, and in fact, it was nothing but a huge scandle. He hoped the section would be stricken out.

Mr. Estes spoke for sometime against the motion to strike out, and during his remarks, alluded to Mr. Bowman's remarks about "not legislating for New England." [Mr. Bowman, sotto voce, say yet we are not legislating for New England.] Mr. Estes continued saying that this gentleman must acknowledge that New England had the best and most successful system of schools in the world.

Mr. Bowman: If New England, is so much ahead of the world generally, and so much better than this section of the country, in particular, why did Northern men emigrate here. [Applause.]

Mr. Estes continued for some time in opposition to the motion.

Mr. Bowman said he did not recognize the right of men from other States to come here and dictate to North Carolinians in their own State. He did not intend to submit to be ridiculed and taken to task about his ideas and notions as a North Carolinian. He was a North Carolinian, representing a constituency of native North Carolinians, and he intended to protect their interest, &c.

After a considerable debate, section 5 was stricken out by the following ballot:

YEAS—Messrs. Allison, Armstrong, Ashworth, Barnes, Boddie, Bowman, Carson, Clayton, Davis, Durham, Ferebee, Gibson, Gilbert, Green, Grier, Gunter, Hawkins, Hayes, Hendricks, Hicks, Hodnett, Humphries, Ingram, Jarvis, Justice, of Henderson, Kelly, of Davie, Kinney, Long, of Richmond, Malone, Matheson, McMillan, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Robinson, Shaver, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Thompson, Vestal, Welch, Williams, of Harnett, and Williams, of Sampson—44.

NAYS—Messrs. Ames, Banner, Blair, Carey, Cherry, Crawford, Dixon, Downing, Estes, Forkner, Foster, French, Gahagan, Graham, Harris, of Wake, Hodgin, Horney, Hudgins, Laflin, Leary, Mayo, McCanless, Mendenhall, Moore, of Chowan, Morris, Pearson, Peck, Renfrow, Robbins, Reynolds, Seymour, Snipes, Stevens, Stilley, Sweat, Sykes, Vest, Wilson and Wiswall—39.

Section 6, which provides that the County Commissioners shall forward, annually, a requisition upon the Superintendent of Public Instruction; the books shall be forwarded to them, and be disposed of by them at cost, provided that any persons who are unable to pay for the necessary books, shall be furnished at the cost of the County, was also stricken out by a vote of yeas 46, nays 39.

Adjourned.

SENATE.

NIGHT SESSION.

MONDAY, March 29, 1869.

The bill, locating the Penitentiary, being the special order, was read the second time, ordered to be printed, and made the special order for Wednesday next.

Mr. Respass, from the Committee on Salaries and Fees, reported back the bill, and recommended that it do pass. [Bill fixes the salary of the Governor and Treasurer.] Made special order for to morrow.

The bill providing for an exchange of certain bonds, being the unfinished business of the morning, was taken up.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, moved to lay on the table. Prevailed.

A. H. Galloway, colored, asked that the bill reported this morning relative to the city of Newbern, be referred back to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, as he held an adverse petition, signed by 500 voters. The motion prevailed, and the bill was referred back.

Act to establish the line between Alamance and Chatham, read 2nd time and passed.

Resolution reducing the per diem of the officers and members of the General Assembly, and that the names of those who are absent, when the yeas and nays are called, shall be noted on the journals, was read.

Mr. Martindale moved its indefinite postponement, which resulted, yeas 18, nays 15.

Bill requiring the Board of Education to invest certain funds in bonds of the State, or of the United States, was read second time and passed.

Act in relation to the public lands,—extends time for making entries perfect. Read second time.

Mr. Welker moved its indefinite postponement. Motion failed.

The bill then passed.

Code bill, respecting County Treasurers, read second time.

Bill defining contempt, and specifying penalty therefor, read second time and passed.

The Senate then adjourned.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, March 30, 1869.

Leave of absence was granted the Senators from Anson and Gaston, until the 12th of April.

Mr. Barrow presented a petition from the citizens of Burke.

Mr. Winstead, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back a number of bills, which took their place on the Calendar.

Mr. Graham, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported back a number of bills, which were placed upon the Calendar.

Mr. Smith, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported favorably on the bills authorizing certain Sheriffs and tax collectors to collect arrears of taxes, &c.

Mr. Brogden, from the Finance Committee, reported favorably on the bill to relieve Rufus Galloway, late Sheriff of Brunswick.

Mr. Murphy introduced a bill incorporating the McLean Hook and Ladder Company of Fayetteville.

Bill to establish a line between the counties of Alamance and Chatham, read 3d time.

Mr. Burns remarked, that, at this time, the county of Chatham could not sustain the expense of a survey.

Mr. Shoffner asked, would the Senator agree to the passage of the bill if Alamance would pay the expense?

The President asked Mr. Shoffner if he was authorized to make the offer?

Mr. Shoffner—No; but the expense would be so trifling he would agree to pay the cost himself, if Chatham objected. It was important that this line should be established; the people want to know where they live; if a man should reach up and take something off a limb, or turn over a hog, the officers wished to know where it all occurred, so as to draw bills of indictment.

Mr. Burns said the Commissioners of his county were opposed to it, and he was opposed to it, and therefore desired the Senate to extend to him the same courtesy they had to other Senators.

Mr. Respass participated in this very interesting debate, in substance, that no trouble might hereafter grow out of this interference, the matter had better remain as it is.

After some further debate, the bill was amended, so as to throw the expense of a survey upon the County of Alamance, provided, the Commissioners of Chatham were unwilling to pay her share, and in this shape the bill passed its third reading.

Mr. Cooke moved that the Committee on Enrolled Bills be increased two additional members. Agreed to.

Act to lay off Homestead, &c., was read third time, and passed—yeas 30, nays 2.

Act providing salaries for the Governor and Treasurer—allows the Governor $4,000, and $1,000 for house rent—allows the Treasurer $3,000.

Mr. Osborne said he was willing to allow the Governor $4,000; the bill gave him $5,000.

Mr. Wynne was willing to give the Governor $5,000, but could not vote to give him $1,000 because he chose to rent his own house.

Mr. Martindale said, the Governor was as much entitled to $5,000 as members of Congress, especially as he, the Governor, had to furnish his own house; the Government house was not in a condition for Mr. Holden to live in, occupying the position that he does.

The motion to strike out resulted, yeas 13, nays 19.

The question then being on the final passage of the bill, resulted, yeas 29, nays 13.

Mr. Bellamy moved to reconsider.

Mr. Hayes moved to lay that motion on the table. Result, yeas 19, nays 20.

The question now recurring on the motion to reconsider,

Mr. Hayes said, if the opposition would agree to make the salary $5,000, he would vote for a reconsideration—unless they did, he would not.

Mr. Welker held in his hand a substitute which would meet the views of the Senator from Robeson.

Mr. Love objected to any bargain being made on this floor.

Mr. Robbins opposed a salary greater than $4,000—it was enough, and the office would be sought with this salary. People were now leaving the State in immense numbers, in consequence of heavy taxation, and the poverty of our State, made so by Radical rule—this was the language of emigrants to him.

Mr. W. D. Jones said, inasmuch as the Governor had refused to occupy the State Mansion, and thereby save to the State a very large amount annually, he thought it just to allow him the $1,000.

Mr. Wynne replied to Mr. Robbins, and fixed the distress of our people, upon the party represented by Mr. R., &c.

Mr. Osborne, in an able argument opposed the increase of the salary.

Mr. Respass defended the Republican party, and advocated the adoption of the $4000 salary, and the $1,000 for rent.

The question then being, to reconsider, resulted yeas 19, nays, 13.

Mr. Welker offered a substitute, making the Governor's salary $5,000.

Mr. Lindsay moved to amend that, by saying $4,000,—yeas 16, nays 17.

Mr. Welker's substitute was then adopted,—and the bill, as amended, passed, yeas 19, nays 13.

Act requiring the Board of Education to invest certain funds, coming into their hands, in State or U. S. securities, was read third time, and passed.

Mr. Lindsay moved a reconsideration of the vote, (of last night,) by which the vote to lay on the table, the bill, authorizing the exchange of certain bonds issued for Railroad purposes. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Respass moved, to postpone, and make the special order for Monday next at 12 o'clock.

On the question to postpone, a protracted and live debate ensued—Mr. Lindsay leading—and characterized the efforts of certain Senators to raise revenue, and to vote away money for Railroads, as calling to their aid, powers celestial, terrestial and infernal—and now they were found in opposition to debts contracted before the war, and had no connection with the war—they were obligations which the State should not shrink from.

Mr. Graham was understood as being ready to vote for the exchange of the bonds, as they were not within the prohibition of the Constitution.

Mr. W. D. Jones took in substance the same position.

Mr. Moore, of Yancey, moved to postpost to the 16th of next November, yeas 19, nays 22.

The bill was then postponed till Monday next, 12 o'clock.

Act authorizing the Treasurer to borrow money to supply a deficiency in the Treasury, was read a third time.

Mr. Martindale offered an amendment restricting the rate of interest which the Treasurer shall pay, to 6 per cent—result, yeas 20, nays 11.

The bill then passed its third reading—yeas 21, nays 8.

The Senate then adjourned.

Substitute for an act to provide for a system of Public Instruction.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on Education, with instructions to report to-morrow morning.

Messrs. Bowman, Pou, Ingram and others opposed the motion.

The motion to recommit was put and lost, by a vote of yeas 38, nays 50.

The question recurred upon the adoption of section 7.

The amendment of the Committee striking out "Superintendent of Public Instruction" and inserting "Board of Education" in line 8 being agreed to, the section was adopted.

Section 8 was adopted.

Section 9 was amended in the same manner as section 7 and adopted.

Section 10 was amended in such a manner as to distribute the net annual income of the public school fund among the several counties in proportion to the number of children to be instructed and then adopted.

W. J. Hayes, colored, moved to reconsider the vote by which section 5 was stricken out.

Mr. Bowman spoke in opposition to the motion. He objected to the section on account of the enormous load of taxation it would create. In his opinion, after a calm consideration of facts and figures this furnishing of books, &c., would cost at least $800,000. He moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table.

The yeas and nays being called the House laid the motion to reconsider on the table by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Allison, Armstrong, Banner, Barnes, Blair, Boddie, Bowman, Carson, Clayton, Davis, Davidson, Durham, Ellis, Farrow, Ferebee, Gibson, Gilbert, Green, Grier, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Hawkins, Hendricks, Hicks, Hinnant, Hodnett, Humphries, Ingram, Jarvis, Justice of Rutherford, Kelley, of Davie, Long, of Richmond, Malone, Matheson, McMillan, Moore, of Alamance, Moore, of Chowan, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Ragland, Robinson, Shaver, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Stilley, Thompson, Vestal, Welch, Wilkie, Williams, of Sampson, Wilson.—52.

NAYS.—Messrs Ames, Carey, Cawthorn, Cherry, Crawford, Dixon, Downing, Forkner, Foster, French, Gahagan, Harris, of Wake Hayes, Hilliard, Hodgin Horney, Hudgings, Justus, of Henderson, Kinney, Laflin, Leary, Mayo, McCanless, Mendenhall, Morrill, Morris, Pearson, Price, Renfrow, Reynolds, Siegrist, Simonds, Stevens, Sweat, Sykes, Vest, Wiswall.—38

Sections 11 and 12 was slightly amended and adopted.

Section 13 was variously amended and then adopted.

Pending the consideration of section 14 the House adjourned.

Gen. Wm. Polk, formerly of Salisbury, died at his residence at Holly Springs, Miss., on the 15th inst.

We call attention to the movement for a new county out of Robeson and Richmond, with Court House near Shoe Heel. We are in favor of this measure, if it can be accomplished properly—and hope it may succeed. More of this hereafter.—Fayetteville Eagle.

LIFE INSURANCE.
NATIONAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
WASHINGTON, D. C.
Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.
CASH CAPITAL,
$1,000,000,
PAID IN FULL.
It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.
If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.
With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
U. S. A.,
and finds just what he wants:
An ALL-CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.
He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the NATIONAL
presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of $1,000,000
as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.
The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.
Amount insured, $10 000,550.00
Total Premiums, 350,117.03
The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892
By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 693
" New England Mutual, 349
" Phœnix Mutual, 335
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277
The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.
In its 10th year, 1,260 "
And in its 20th year, 2,842 "
this latter being 600 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others go so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."
In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

This celebrated "singist" who is to be in Raleigh, 7th prox., is thus noticed in a late number of the New York Herald:

"The "silver-voiced" Brignoli having severed his connection with the Academy and the operatic mummies therein embalmed, is now about to start South with a troupe of acknowledged merit. Signor Brignoli has been long a popular favorite in this city, and he now leaves with undiminished fame. No better medium to reconstruct the South in the matter of music could be selected. His light has been too long hid under a bushel with the aforesaid mummies, and we are pleased to hear that it can now shine with undiminished brilliancy among the unreconstructed."

We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Sloan & Son' Greensboro', who are Agents for the sale of Sorghum Seed.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

This morning, at 7 o'clock, the Alamance Regulators returned to this city after a fruitless search for Ku Klux and immaginary disturbers of the peace and quiet of the State—to say nothing of her insulted dignity. The boys, on their arrival at the N. C. depot, looked "mighty glad"—Bosier smiled, and Maguire winked at a certain Senator who asked him if he had found the Ku Klux

The Governor, our beloved, will feel thankful that no blood was shed, while the dignity of the State and the peace of society, have been triumphantly vindicated.—We understand a platform, at the expense of the State, is to be erected on the spot occupied by the Governor when he delivered his inaugural, from which he is to harangue—so, we retract, and beg pardon—address his pet lambs in language complimentary, for their successful mission.—When this "other farce" takes place, we shall have a reporter present.

WE, the undersigned, take pleasure in returning our sincere thanks to our fellow-citizens generally, (white and colored,) for their prompt and efficient exertions in saving our property at the late fire on the morning of the 28th instant.

ATTEMPT AT HIGHWAY ROBBERY FRUSTRATED.—A few days since, as Mr. John Cox was returning from this city to his home in Swansboro', accompanied by his wife, he was attacked within a mile of the latter place by three armed negroes, who demanded his valuables. Not feeling disposed to comply, Mr. Cox drew his weapons, Mrs. Cox jumped from the buggy at the same time, with a child in her arms, keeping it between the highwaymen and herself. Seeing that he was not to be intimidated by mere threats, the negroes fired a volley at Mr. Cox, without hurting him.—He returned the fire and sight or ten shots were exchanged between him and the highwaymen, when Mr. Thos. Holland came to his assistance. At this juncture the negroes fled. Mr. Cox was uninjured, nor is it thought that any of the attacking party were.—Newbern Jour. of Com.

GOLD IN NORTH CAROLINA.—In 1799 a large nugget was discovered in Cabarrus county, and subsequently another weighing 28 pounds. Previous to 1680 more than one hundred pounds were collected in pieces, each of over a pound in weight. Lumps were found in adjoining counties weighing from one to sixteen pounds. For twenty-three years, from 1804 to 1827, North Carolina furnished all the gold of the United States, amounting to $110,000.

She deposited in the mint, up to 1866, $9,278,637,67. Rockingham, Guilford, Rowan, Cabarrus, Rutherford and Mecklenburg are the counties in which mining has been hitherto conducted. The metal was obtained from washings up to 1825, but in that year gold vein stones were discovered and 625 ounces of gold obtained by rock mining.—Pet. Express.

HOLDEN'S VETERANS.

Holden's soldiers, all seamed and scarred, have returned from the war. The "new rebellion" has been effectually squelched.—Veni, Vidi, Vici. Since the days of the great military campaign of Peter Stuyvesant when the rebellious New Netherlanders were made to quickly feel the prowess of the great leader from New Amsterdam, there has been no escapade equal to the performances of the veterans of "our beloved" in their late hazardous and brilliant campaign among the Ku Klux of Alamance. They, one and all, deserve the admiration of the wise, and the grateful remembrance of the sons and daughters of North Carolina. They have met the enemy and he now lies prostrate at their feet.—Hurrah! Hurrah!

As the faithful historian of this war in Alamance we must not fail to chronicle one daring display of the highest courage and the most stoical endurance. The veterans attended a chicken-fight in the midst of the Ku Klux. The crowd in their eagerness to witness the fight between the game-cocks pressed heavily upon the ring, when at this instant the services of two of Holden's veterans were secured, when they gallantly entered the scene of direful conflict and immediately caused the crowd to surge back until the chickens only remained "cocks of the walk." We hope the General Assembly will cause a medal to be made of the best North Carolina red leather to be presented to these heroic soldiers. Another incident to be recorded is of tearful interest. One of the veterans while attempting the perilous adventure of walking a log across a creek, fell in and skinned his shins. We condole, and recommend Coughton's salve. Thus ends the great rebellion. Thus covered with glory the warworn veterans of "our beloved" return from the scenes of carnage, and hang up once more "their bruised arms" for "monuments." Now they will lay aside their soiled habiliments of war and "clothing their pampered limbs" in "robes of peace," will tell of their wondrous deeds and "fight their battles o'er again." Sic transit est.

FOUND DEAD.—Mr. John Cheek Smith, a man about 60 years old, who has been engaged in school teaching for a number of years, was found dead on the track (or near it) of the Char. & S. C. ROBBERY.—Dr. L. A. Mills, quite a worthy and prominent citizen of this county, was robbed some three months ago of about $400 in greenbacks and $100 in specie.—The doctor was not aware of his loss for some weeks after the theft was committed. Four of the parties charged with the robbery are now in jail.—Rutherford Vindicator.

As we are going to press, says the Charlotte Observer, we learn that the body of a young man named Burwell Hilton, was found in a briar patch, near his house, about three miles from this city, yesterday. We have not heard full particulars, but understand the body was horrible mutilated. The murder is supposed to have been committed last Sunday morning. A negro has been arrested on suspicion. Hilton was employed by Dr. Elliott to attend his mill, and was a young man in good standing.

OUTRAGE IN JONES COUNTY—NEGROES THE PERPETRATORS.—We understand from undoubted authority that a white man named Sykes, who is supposed to be a native and resident of this county, was taken from the jail of Jones county, at Trenton, by a party of five negro men on Thursday night, since which time nothing has been heard from him. Grave fears are entertained that he was foully murdered. The circumstances connected with this outrage are as follows:

A few days ago Sykes while in conversation with another white man, remarked that Colgrove, the Sheriff of the county, was a contemptible coward—or words to that effect. A negro standing near overheard the remark, and made an insulting rejoiner. Sykes replied in a spirited manner, and the dispute became warm. The negro at length, threatened to shoot the white man, when the latter stepped into his house, procurred a shot gun, and told him to come on. For this he was arrested and incarcerated in the common jail. Thursday night the jailor was aroused by three negro men, who reported that they had some prisoners at the jail door, and desired him to come down and place them in secure confinement. The jailor, Mr. Harrison, complied; but before he accompanied the negroes to the jail, he demanded where the prisoners were. He was again told that a party of men, retaining them in custody, was awaiting him at the door, as they desired them to be jailed that night. Mr. Harrison then went with the party to the jail. When he arrived, two negroes stepped from behind the building. All five then presented guns at him, and, under pain of death, demanded the keys. Harrison gave them up, when the negroes entered, took Sykes from the cell in which he was confined, and left, carying him with them. What has become of them is unknown.

This is one of the results of the course pursued by Colgrove and Wilkie for some time past. What will be the termination we are unable to tell. The people of Jones county, we are informed, have determined to take the law in their own hands, and bring the perpetrators of this outrage to condign punishment. While we deprecate this course, we are forced to admit that it is the only reasonable one left them by which to procure justice. When the guns recently sent from this city are distributed by Wilkie they will be at the mercy of a band of desperadoes, consisting of mean white men and negroes, if some counter step to prevent it is not taken. We are expecting to hear startling intelligence from Jones county daily, as it is currently reported that the respectable people there are determined to submit no longer to the outrages daily perpetrated upon them.—Newbern Jour. of Com.

For the Sentinel.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

It is with regret that we are informed that it is proposed by some to repeal the laws incorporating the Medical Board of Examiners, for the State of North Carolina.

The great importance to the well being and prosperity of the State, of the existence in its midst of a talented and well instructed medical profession, is capable of the clearest demonstration. They can aid the Legislature in the enactment of laws, having for their object the protection of the health and the promotion of the vigor, comfort, and general well-being of the entire community. They can assist the officers of justice in the detection of guilt and the protection of the innocent, and render efficient the efforts of the philanthopist to diminish crime, pauperism, and suffering.

It is one of the biggest duties of a State to throw around its citizens such safeguards as shall ensure their greatest possible immunity from disease and death, and that, it is clear, can only be done by the promotion of such measures as shall insure to the community the services of a well competent body of medical practitioners. It is such a body, alone, that is competent to investigate and detect the sources of disease and point out the proper means by which each citizen may be shielded from the noxious influences by which he is surrounded and from which his health and life are in constant jeopardy.

Now if it be true that the science of medicine, though the labors of its professors is rapidly advancing in the means of cure, if it be true that physicians are laboring not for themselves alone, but for the public, who share alike the proceeds of their toil, if, in the accomplishment of their mission, they relieve the State of a tax by the voluntary assumption of gratuitous services, which would otherwise prove onerous to its citizens; if the medical profession, as a class, by the moral and intellectual elevation of society, by the prevention and cure of desease, and by the advancement of the honor and wealth of the State, contribute largely to the common welfare. Does it not merit the fostering care of the State, and appeal by every consideration of interest and duty, for such encouragement and protection as shall animate its members, energize its philanthropic efforts, and secure all the benefits derivable from a full development of its susceptibilities. In consequence of these important services thus rendered by the educated physicians to the community at large, the legislature should do everything in their power to promote medical education, and to protect the legitimate members of the profession from the encroachments of ignorant pretenders and of charlatans of every class and description.

Ask yourselves, Representatives, whether it be prudent and wise, by repealing this law, to adopt a policy towards the educated medical profession, that retards their advancement, discourages their efforts, and represses the spirit that should prompt them, rather than throw your buckler between them and sinister influences, deeply calculated to operate as fatally upon yourselves, and upon your constituents, as upon a profession whose object is exalted, and whose utility is unquestioned.

RALEIGH, N. C. SILEX.

A glorious reception was that met with by ex President Johnson on his return to his home in Greenville, Tenn. As the train came in sight, decorated with flags, and stopped in front of the depot building, and the well-known form of "Andy" stepped off the platform, the vast crowd broke forth into tumultuous applause, the men cheering, the ladies waving handkerchiefs, and every one who could lay hold of a flag waving it vigorously. As Mr. Johnson stepped on the platform of the depot, he was welcomed by maidens clad in white, who presented him with a boquet. The ex President gracefully replied to the compliment and spent a few minutes chatting with friends. A procession was then formed, which escorted Mr. Johnson to the Court House, where he was formally welcomed to his old home. In his response, he said he had tried to discharge his duty, regardless of the consequences to himself, and he was proud to be able confidently to ask: "At whose hands have I ever received a bribe throughout this whole routine? I challenge any and all calumniators of mine to place their finger upon a single stain upon my official character. With the consciousness of having done my duty, I can look this audience in the face and ask, whom have I betrayed? whom have I defrauded?" He warned the people that danger approaches the existence of the Constitution, already denied or thrust in the background by the dominant party and an arbitrary Congress, which assumes its discretion as the limit of power. No longer do old party differences divide us, but it is now a question of government—of constitution and law on the one hand, or a despotic power on the other. The people had better have a prince or a king ruling over them than an arbitrary body enacting laws and measures so unwarrantable and terrible in character. A great deal has been said about slavery and its abolition. He declared that for the last four years he had been the greatest slave on the earth. The 4th of March was Emancipation Day to him. If the Constitution is not wrested, within the next two years, from the hands of the usurpers, it is gone and our government is gone, and despotism rules supreme. After the conclusion of the address, the procession was reformed, and marched to Mr. Johnson's residence. Mrs. Stover met her father at the door and kissed him. The children were in the hall, and evinced the love and affection with which they regarded their grandfather by great manifestations of delight. Mr. Johnson thanked the assemblage for their kindness, the band played "Home, Sweet Home," and the reception was over.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN,
Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES, INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

1,100 ACRES OF VALUABLE LAND
IN WARREN COUNTY.

BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE OF THE Supreme Court, I shall offer for sale, at the Court House door, in the town of Warrenton, ON SATURDAY THE 1ST. DAY OF MAY 1869,

LIFE INSURANCE.
ALL CASH PLAN OF THE ÆTNA
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF HARTFORD, CONN.

W. H. CROW, General Agent for North Carolina and Virginia, South of the James.

Accumulated Capital, over	$16,000,00
Annual Income,	6,000,000
Surplus, above Liabilities,	2,500,000

THE ÆTNA
Has $136 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

ALL POLICIES STRICTLY NON-FORFEITING.

CASH RATES!
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium, or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna Issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, as an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the ÆTNA:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved or can become a success as its popular institution.—Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."
March 17-tf

SYNOPSIS OF STATEMENT FOR 1869, OF THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Income from Premiums,	$7 161,304 11
Income from Interest,	1,584,935 48
Total Income for the year,	$8,746,209 59
Losses paid,	1 921,835 00
Dividends paid,	925,284 00
Total Losses paid to date,	8,068,993 00
Total Dividends paid to date,	2,197,3 8 00

It will be seen from the above that the INCOME FROM INTEREST ALONE greatly exceeds the losses, and that the TOTAL INCOME FOR ONE YEAR is more than the TOTAL LOSSES PAID TO DATE.

The Assets of the Company are now over TWENTY-THREE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, and with its IMMENSE INCOME offers greater inducements to those insuring than any other Company in the country. In addition to the participating system of premiums with dividends annually payable after four years, it issues Policies upon a reduced all-cash premium, with immediate ANNUAL DIVIDENDS. It can be plainly seen that the Connecticut Mutual Life has been doing a safe and increasing business for the last twenty-two years. It does not deem it necessary to make grand promises of what they INTEND doing, but will insure persons on any plan they desire, and it also all its policies non-forfeitable, for a stated amount, after two or three payments. Also remember, this Company has $194 Assets accurely invested, for every $100 of its Liabilities.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the most LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVID

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES

WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR OR FRICTION.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a rocky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK (SUT) HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by
